Thanks Linda, I appreciate that. Can I read that email as : " get back to you" rather than get "back at you" (joking)

Toni

Hi Toni-just wanted to catch up with you this week, but I know you were off sick, and did a night shift as well-thank you for that. I thought in light of the busy week, I best drop an email to let you know the Adverse event form you sent is being investigated, and when there is more information I will get back at you. Thanks Linda
